Description

An agency of the province of British Columbia.

Mission / Philosophy

To support the arts and cultural community by providing financial assistance, research, advocacy, and public education.

The Council has a range of programs designed to provide support to professional arts and cultural organizations throughout the province. Along with funding for theatre, music, dance, visual, media and literary arts organizations, the Council also has programs to support community arts organizations, festivals, museums, training and service agencies.

There are two kinds of funding programs: Operating, which provides annual grants to established organizations, and Project, which are one-time grants that target a specific production, exhibition or project.
