Mission / Philosophy

Established in 1964 by Henry (Harry) R. Jackman, the Jackman Foundation assists organizations to answer the needs of Canadian society. Originally, the foundation funded primarily religious and educational projects. In recent years, we have expanded and now offers grants to a variety of charitable organizations. Our scope ranges from major Canadian institutions to small grassroots groups, and our concerns vary from theatre to medicine, from the environment to day care. All are committed to encouraging excellence and providing help where it is needed.
